

Outstanding Musicians Scheduled to Perform at Somers Congregational Church

Somers Congregational Church, located at 599 Main Street, will present a concert on Saturday, September 7 at 7:00 PM featuring organist Scott Lamlein. Flutist Emily DeNucci will join Scott in an arrangement of Chaminade's Concertino for flute and organ.

Scott Lamlein has performed concerts from New England to Europe. His playing has been described as inspiring, uplifting, powerful and flawless. Performing music from Bach to the modern era, he brings a unique emotional and spiritual inspiration to his audiences.

Emily DeNucci, a student with Greig Shearer at The Hartt School Community Division, has won the NY Flute Club Young Musicians Contest for her age group in both 2017 and 2019. She is looking forward to joining the Boston Youth Symphony orchestra this fall.

Admission is free with goodwill donations accepted. There will be a reception following the concert. For more information call 860-763-4021 or go to www.thesomerschurch.org.
